

Suddenly, the ocean
swallowed the land.

Here it comes! Hold on tight!

My tower is safe and dry.

Whew! My raft is floating perfectly.

JJ had a clever machine for survival.

This filters the salt. Now I have fresh drinking water.

Mikey found food in the sea.

I caught a huge fish!
I will not go hungry.

A storm began to howl
across the ocean.

Get inside, Mikey!
The weather is turning bad.

I feel terrible!
The waves are too strong!

Something enormous was lurking below...

Mikey!
Look at the water!

Help me!
It's going to eat the raft!

My shelter is destroyed!

JJ activated his secret weapon.

Take this, you beast! Electric shock!

The shark was stunned
and swam away fast.

Climb up, Mikey!
Hurry before it comes back!
